

Vested benefits when changing jobs

You have recently joined Vita. If you have pension fund assets, you will have to transfer them to Vita from your old pension plan or vested benefits institution as soon as possible.

What to do

1. Your previous pension plan/vested benefits institution needs the following information for the transfer:

Date of birth
New employer
Contract number

Note

You can obtain the contract number from your new employer.

2. Check the Vita Joint Foundations' pension plan where you are newly insured:

Zurich Life Insurance Company Ltd, 8045 Zurich – account 80-2-2

3. Send this form to your previous pension plan/vested benefits institution so that your departure payment can be transferred to the above account.
4. If you do not know where to obtain the departure payment from your previous employer, contact the 2nd pillar central office (www.verbindungsstelle.ch).

Departure payment / vested benefit

The departure payment (also vested benefit) is equal to your pension assets at the time of departure and consists of the employee's and employer's savings contributions, any personal voluntary contributions, contributed vested benefits and accumulated interest. When you start a new job, your pension assets must be transferred to your new employer's pension plan.

2 What happens next?

Please send the fully completed form to your previous pension plan/vested benefits institution. It will transfer your departure payment to Vita. As soon as we receive your departure payment, we will send you a new pension certificate.
